1. Using the graphic organizer, chart the plot of the dream, as it is described on page 19.

2. Using complete sentences, rewrite the dream sequence, adding additional details to describe both the polluted river and the clean dream.

3. Be sure to revise and edit your work.

4. On your final copy, use the extra box to either enhance (add more) to the beginning of the dream or the end.

5. Add appropriate, clear, and neat, and colorful illustrations in each box.
