Bibliography

Sorted by Call Number / Author.

            v. 1. Abnormality defined--intelligence -- v. 2. Intelligence tests--the visual system. Index. A two-book reference guide containing 110 alphabetically-arranged articles that discuss the basic theories and philosophies of psychology, including Pavlovian and instrumental conditioning, short- and long-term memory, the nervous system, and other related topics.

301.41 R  Rossi, Alice S., 1922-. The feminist papers: from Adams to de Beauvoir. New
            A selection of documents in feminist history over the past two centuries.

            Introduction -- People as social animals -- Relating to others -- Relating to society -- Communication -- Personality -- Intelligence -- Nature or nurture. Explores the role a person has as an individual and as a part of society, describing how personality and intelligence allow people to communicate and relate to each other and society as a whole, and discussing different types of social interaction and the rules of social engagement.

            Examines the many roles women have played in the shaping of American culture, from those who braved the perils of the Western frontier to women who endured slavery and worked for the right to vote.

            Presents various articles which discuss opposing viewpoints about the status of women in America today, the effect that feminism has had on society, the continued need for the feminist movement, and the future goals of the movement.

            Introduction -- History of the brain -- Biology of the brain -- The mind -- Perception -- Emotion and motivation -- Consciousness. Explains key aspects of brain psychology, detailing how the brain works, and examining the concept of mind and consciousness, along with the important role played by emotions on mental health and daily living.

616.85 THA  Thakkar, Vatsal, 1972-. Depression and bipolar disorder. Philadelphia : Chelsea House, c2006.
            The depressive disorders -- The bipolar spectrum disorders -- Other mood disorders -- Mood disorders and suicide -- Occurrence of mood disorders -
            - The development of mood disorders -- Treatment of mood disorders.
            Examines the symptoms, causes, and effects of depression and bipolar disorder, as well as other mood disorders, discusses the relationship between mood disorders and suicide, and looks at treatment options.

            What is abnormality? -- Mental disorders -- Abnormality in development -- Psychotherapies -- Physical therapies -- Mental disorders and society. Provides an overview of psychological and mental disorders, describing the evolution of social attitudes toward and treatments of psychological disorders, and examining the ways psychological challenges can affect a child's abilities to learn.

616.89 ABR
Discusses the nature of schizophrenia, its various types and diagnoses, and such related topics as Freud, genetics, family ties, stress, stigma, prenatal viruses, living conditions, daily problems, early treatments, funding, research, and new drugs.

616.89 JAM
Patrick Jamieson chronicles his battles with bipolar disorder as a teen, and offers other teens suffering from the disorder practical advice on how they can cope with the emotional and physical challenges they face.

616.89 JOV
Offers teenagers advice on how to cope with bipolar disorder and manic-depression, discussing the illnesses' causes, symptoms, diagnosis, and treatments.

616.89 WAL
Bibliography: p. 246-256. Includes index. Explains what is known about the disease, its causes and treatments, and offers advice to families.

616.89 You
Discusses how schizophrenia affects its victims and their families, possible causes of the illness, inheritance and environmental factors, and some treatments.

820.9 GOO
A collection of essays examining the theme of good and evil in literature.

823 FRA
A collection of essays which analyze the character of Frankenstein in Mary Shelley's novel, discussing literary allusions used by Shelley when describing the monster, comparing Frankenstein to other heroes from the era, and analyzing the work from a feminist perspective.

823 MAR
Presents critical essays on Mary Wollstonecraft Shelley's "Frankenstein" and includes a chronology, a bibliography, and an introduction by critic Harold Bloom.

823.09 BLO
Frankenstein / Muriel Spark -- Night thoughts on the Gothic novel / Lowry Nelson, Jr. -- Frankenstein ; or, The modern Prometheus / James Rieger --

823.7 Blu  Blumberg, Jane. Mary Shelley's early novels : 'this child of imagination and misery'. Iowa City : Univ. of Iowa Press, c1993. A reappraisal of the English novelist best-known for her work "Frankenstein". Focuses on personal influences in her fiction, personal relations, and her achievements.

901.93 G  Gay, Peter, 1923-. Age of enlightenment,. New York, : Time, inc. [school and library distribution by Silver Burdett Co., 1966]. Surveys life in 18th century Europe, and discusses the scientific, religious, philosophical and cultural trends of the time.

REF 150 PSY  Social Psychology. Danbury, Conn : Grolier Educational, 2002. Vol. 1. History of psychology -- v. 2. The brain and the mind -- v. 3. Thinking and knowing -- v. 4. Developmental psychology -- v. 5. Social psychology -- v. 6. Abnormal psychology. Contains articles that examine various aspects of psychology, covering the historical development of the field, the brain and the mind, thinking and knowing, and developmental, social, and abnormal psychology; and includes summaries of key points, definitions of terms, case studies, and biographies.

REF 150 PSY  Psychology basics. Rev. ed. Pasadena, Calif. : Salem Press, c2005. Contains sixty-eight essays that provide information on significant theories and issues in the field of psychology, each with a list of sources for further study; arranged alphabetically from "Abnormality" to "Learning Disorders.".

REF 150 PSY  Psychology basics. Rev. ed. Pasadena, Calif. : Salem Press, c2005. Contains fifty-nine essays that provide information on significant theories and issues in the field of psychology, each with a list of sources for further study; arranged alphabetically from "Logic and Reasoning" to "Women's Psychology: Sigmund Freud," with a glossary, Web site directory, and comprehensive index.

Vol. 1. Anomie and deviance-microsociology -- v. 2. Modernization and world-system theories-workplace socialization. Presents ninety alphabetically arranged articles on the fundamental issues and concepts in fourteen fields of sociology, including culture, deviance and social control, and social stratification.

Examines women in the noble courts, middle, upper, and working classes, and salons in the cities of the modern era.

Contains information about women's issues from the Abolitionist Movement to Esther Zorn.

Novels for students : presenting analysis, context, and criticism on commonly studied novels. Detroit, Mich. : Gale, c2011.
Provides critical overviews of novels from various cultures and time periods. Includes discussions of plot, characters, themes and structure as well as the work's cultural and historical significance.

Vol. 1. Absolutism to Coligny -- v. 2. Cologne to Fur trade -- v. 3. Gabrieli to Lyon -- v. 4. Macau to Pope -- v. 5. Popular culture to Switzerland -- v. 6. Tasso to Zwingli; index. Contains alphabetically arranged entries that provide information about significant people and events in European history from 1450 to 1789, covering medicine, agriculture, the military, the Enlightenment, religious practice, and many other topics; and includes maps, a chronology, and a comprehensive index.

Contents by title: Antony and Cleopatra, William Shakespeare ; Battle of Maldon, The, as translated by Michael Alexander ; Beggar's Opera, The, John Gay ; Beowulf, as translated by Seamus Heaney ; Canterbury Tales, The, Geoffrey Chaucer ; Castle Rackrent: An Hibernian Tale taken from facts and from the manners of the Irish squires before the year 1782, Maria Edgeworth ; Diary of Samuel Pepys, The, Samuel Pepys ; Don Juan, George Gordon, Lord Byron ; Dr. Faustus, Christopher Marlowe ; Duchess of Malfi, The, John Webster ; “England in 1819” and Other Poems, Percy Bysshe Shelley ; Essay Concerning Human Understanding, An, John Locke ; Eve of St. Agnes, The, John Keats ; Faerie Queene, Edmund Spenser ; Frankenstein, Mary Shelley ; Gulliver's Travels, Jonathan Swift ; Henry V, William Shakespeare ; History of Tom Jones: A Foundling, The, Henry Fielding ; King Lear, William Shakespeare ; Life of Samuel Johnson, The, James Boswell ; Lyrical Ballads, William Wordsworth and Samuel Taylor Coleridge ; Mabinogion, The, as translated by Patrick Ford ; Macbeth William Shakespeare ; “Mac Flecknoe” John Dryden ; Middlemarch: A Study of Provincial Life, George Eliot ; Moll Flanders, Daniel Defoe ; Morte D'Arthur, Le, Sir Thomas Malory ; Mysteries of Udolpho, The, Ann Radcliffe ; Oroonoko, or The Royal Slave: A True History, Aphra Behn ; Pamela, or Virtue Rewarded, Samuel Richardson ; Paradise Lost, John Milton ; Piers Plowman, William Langland ; Pilgrim's Progress, The, John Bunyan ; Rape of the Lock, The, Alexander Pope ; Richard II William Shakespeare; Rivals, The, Richard Brinsley Sheridan; Rob Roy, Sir Walter Scot; Sense and Sensibility, Jane Austen; She Stoops to Conquer, Oliver Goldsmith; Sir Gawain and the Green Knight as translated by Marie Boroff; Songs and Sonnets, John Donne; Songs of Innocence and of Experience; Shewing the Two Contrary States of the Human Soul, William Blake; Spanish Tragedy, The, Thomas Kyd; Spectator, The, Joseph Addison and Sir Richard Steele; Táin, The (The Cattle Raid of Cooley), as translated by Thomas Kinsella; Vanity Fair, William Makepeace Thackeray; Vindication of the Rights of Woman, A, Mary Wollstonecraft; Volpone, Ben Jonson; Way of the World, The, William Congreve; Wuthering Heights, Emily Brontë. Examines the relationship between the political/social climate during which books were written and the works themselves. This volume focuses on major fiction, poetry and nonfiction from Great Britain and Ireland, from the Celtic migrations to the Reform Bill.