April is a Great Month to Celebrate and Enjoy Reading!!

National Library Week (April 12-18) and School Library Month share the same theme, "Unlimited possibilities @ your library."

- Check Cranston Public Library’s list of events for children, teens, and families at http://www.cranstonlibrary.org/
- Visit your school library’s webpage and look for activities, events, or a great book to enjoy at www.ricat.net

Reading Week - “Be Your Own Hero-READ!”

- Reading week is celebrated at many schools; which week may vary per school.
- There may be special guest readers at your child’s school or other special activities.
- Check your school’s website.

D.E.A.R – Drop Everything and Read

- A nationwide program designed to encourage people of all ages to make reading a daily activity.
- Your child’s school may have D.E.A.R time during reading week.
- Look for books at your local or school library to celebrate reading!

National Poetry Month

- A nationwide celebration of poetry
- Visit your local or school library to check out some poetry
- Visit the official website to find other ways to participate http://www.poets.org/national-poetry-month/about-celebration
