Emmit the Cat
by Karly W.
Once upon a time, Princess Karly got a new cat from the Royal Princess Pet Shop. His name was Emmit. The cat was so cute because when he meowed it sounded like he was saying "mom".
One day, Emmit jumped on Princess Karly's bed, accidentally scratching the princess's foot. "OW!" said the princess. The princess was able to walk, but her foot really hurt.
Emmit the cat felt really bad about hurting princess Karly's foot. Emmit followed princess Karly all the way to school and sat on her lap all day until she left. Princess Karly forgave Emmit and her foot felt better in no time. The End.
About the Author

Karly is 7 years old. Her favorite food is ice cream. Her favorite author is Tomie DePaola. She has 3 siblings - an older brother, a younger sister and a younger brother.