Common North American Bats

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Name</th>
<th>Wingspan</th>
<th>Lives In</th>
<th>Eats</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>little brown bat</td>
<td>8-11 inches (20-28 cm)</td>
<td>most of North America</td>
<td>insects</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>pallid bat</td>
<td>9 inches (23 cm)</td>
<td>Western U.S.</td>
<td>insects, scorpions</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>big brown bat</td>
<td>13 inches (33 cm)</td>
<td>most of North America</td>
<td>beetles, other insects</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Mexican free-tailed bat</td>
<td>11-13 inches (28-33 cm)</td>
<td>Southwestern, Southeastern U.S.</td>
<td>insects</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>lesser long-nosed bat</td>
<td>11 inches (28 cm)</td>
<td>Arizona, New Mexico</td>
<td>pollen</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Please answer the following questions using the above table:

1. What is the name of the table?
   ____________________________

2. Which bat eats scorpions?
   ____________________________

3. Where does the lesser long-nosed bat live?
   ____________________________

4. Is the wingspan of the big brown bat bigger or smaller than the pallid bat?
   ____________________________

5. What does a big brown bat eat?
   ____________________________

6. Which bat eats pollen?
   ____________________________

7. Where does the pallid bat live?
   ____________________________

8. Which bat eats beetles?
   ____________________________

9. What is the wingspan of a pallid bat, in centimeters?
   ____________________________