Partnerships Amid Budget Challenges: How a Public Library and School District Combined Forces to Put Students' Needs First - 8/15/2017

Q&A

Q: Is there a way to print the slides?
A: we'll share the slides after the presentation!

Q: Have you collected statistics that show the increase in Tutor.com usage? and/or improvement in student grades?
A: Did Emily answer your question Nancy?

Q: Do you have school specific data?
A: nancy.donnell@sjlibrary.org

Q: How do you deal with lack of documents for students?
A: mohr.teen.librarian@gmail.com

Q: Can we get a copy of the presentation? I'd like to visit the sites listed.
A: dmendezdemaio@pbclibrary.org

Q: Can students access Tutor.com from the school?
A: grgoldberg@rpl.org

Q: How did you guys develop the initial collaboration between the public library and the school district?
A: melissaw@mcbridelibrary.org

Q: Do the librarians in the public and school library systems in your area ever meet or discuss ideas in one big setting, to hear about what is new, etc.? Almost like a localized conference?
Q: Thank you.

Q: What is the age requirement for a library card?

Q: Thanks!

Q: I should have clarified that I meant without parental permission...