For the following photographs, answer whether the picture shows an urban, suburban or rural area. Then, list evidence from the photograph to support your answer to each question. Keep in mind the definition and characteristics of these three types of communities.

1. Does the photograph show an urban, suburban or rural area?

2. Please list your evidence to support your answer to the above question.
1. Does the photograph show an urban, suburban or rural area?

_________________________________________________________________________

2. Please list your evidence to support your answer to the above question.

_________________________________________________________________________

_________________________________________________________________________

_________________________________________________________________________

_________________________________________________________________________

_________________________________________________________________________

_________________________________________________________________________
1. Does the photograph show an urban, suburban or rural area?

2. Please list your evidence to support your answer to the above question.

Images courtesy of: https://agecon.unl.edu/communitymarketing https://www.realtor.com/advice/buy/basics-homeowners-associations
https://thomasbfoster.com/teaching/urban_comm/