The MWDS (see #2) must be submitted before 2:00 P.M. on Friday, August 16th, in the Main Office.

1. Read ALL of How to Read Literature Like a Professor: A Lively and Entertaining Guide to Reading Between the Lines (Revised Edition) by Thomas C. Foster. Please be sure you are reading the revised edition. I have provided a link to the pdf above, but owning your own copy is preferred. You should highlight/annotate/notetake in whatever format helps you to process the information. Please bring the book with you when classes resume.
   a. You will be tested on this book within the first week of school.
   b. Additionally, you will be assigned a short story upon the start of school. You will be asked to apply concepts from the text to your assigned story, then present your analysis in a group presentation. More information will be provided in class.

2. Read a novel/play of your choice from the attached list. Choose a work you have not read before; however, please DO NOT read Frankenstein, King Lear, A Thousand Acres, As I Lay Dying, or Hamlet.
   a. Review the directions for how to complete a Major Works Data Sheet.
   b. Review the rubric.
   c. Complete the Major Works Data Sheet for your chosen novel/play.

★ Late assignments will lose 20 points a day--no exceptions.
★ I am interested in your analysis, not Shmoop, Sparknotes, etc., so please be sure your writing is your own.
