LITERATURE RESPONSE

Name ___________________________       Date __________________

Use this guide to assist you in writing in your Literature Response Journal or a Reader’s Notebook.

1) Write a Summary:
Summarize the story in your own words including details about the characters, main events (plot), setting, historical time period, conflicts, or the resolution.

2) Write about your reactions to this story: 😊
- How did the main character feel when faced with a conflict?
- Why did the character react the way he or she did?
- Should the character have acted that way?
- What would you have done?
- What does the story remind you of?
- What did you like about the book?
- What did you dislike about the book?
- If you were the writer, what would you change?
- Did the author make you feel that you were transported to that particular time in history?

3) Write some of my own Questions & provide your Answers: 😊
___________________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________________