Answer the following questions:

- Typed
- Double spaced
- Complete paragraph for each question (at least)

1) When writing for ‘telling’ how do we decide which words are required and which words we leave out?

2) What 3 things get you excited about writing? Why?

3) Explain “poetic license”.

4) Describe your ideal writing environment. (i.e. noisy, quiet, organized, etc…) Why do you like to write in this environment?

5) When thinking about your writing, why do you write the way you do? Who is your audience?

6) How do we express ourselves in creative and unique ways? (other than writing)

7) What is an anecdote and what purpose do they serve?

8) Explain King’s quote, “You must never come lightly to the blank page.” (pg. 106)