Change Maker Bio Poem

● Use the notes from your graphic organizer to write your Bio Poem.
● Start with the person’s first name on the first line.
● Then, simply list the three adjectives on the second line.
● Any line that starts with Who should start with that word.
● Choose your font and background color carefully.
  ○ The font and color should complement your poem.
● Place your citations on the Works Cited slide in alphabetical order.

Start your poem on the next slide.
John Robert

Born on February 21, 1940 near Troy, Alabama to parents who sharecroppers
Tenacious, Heroic, Thoughtful
Founding member of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee that pursued civil rights for all African Americans Who loves the idea of people coming together to fight against discrimination
Who felt honored when he was awarded the Medal of Freedom by the first African American president, Barack Obama, in February of 2011
Who experienced fear when he was attacked by state troopers in Selma, Alabama on “Bloody Sunday” when protesters were not allowed to cross the Edmund Pettus Bridge in Selma, Alabama to walk to Montgomery, Alabama
Who was a keynote speaker at the March on Washington when his friend, Martin Luther King, Jr, gave his “I Have a Dream” speech.
Who wanted African Americans to be treated equally and have the right to vote
Who lives on to serve in the United States House of Representatives and continues to fight for racial equality

Lewis
Works Cited

Image

Name: Mrs. L. Doherty